DC DESIGN HOUSE 2017

Last week I had the pleasure of touring the DC Design House 2017, and shared a few "first look" photos that I took on my phone. This was my inaugural visit to a DC Design House, and I embraced the introduction to the new-to-me roster of Washington DC designers. Now that you've seen my sneak peek pics, planned your visit, and purchased your tickets, enjoy a full tour of the showhouse, beautifully captured by photographer Angie Seckinger.

PAINT COLORS

Paint selections throughout the showhouse were provided by DC Design House 2017 Gold Sponsor, Sherwin-Williams. You guys often email me to ask about paint colors (I love hearing from you all), so I made sure to include the Sherwin-Williams specs used in each space, as listed in the Program Book.
